44-253-2 Little Rock teletype to Director, New York and Newark, dated 9-26-57 and captioned "Integration in public schools in Arkansas, CR, Contempt of Court." This teletype reflects the following: Re NY tel Sept. 12 last advising one package of publication "Common Sense" was being shipped to [REDACTED] Little Rock, Ark. It is noted this publication is published by the CONDE MC GINLEY Publisher of New Jersey. The particular edition was the issue dated Aug. 1, 1957, which had an article entitled, "NAACP Leaders With Their Communist Front Citations." Inasmuch as [REDACTED] is the [REDACTED] Governor FAUBUS, it would be of interest to ascertain if these publications were sent to [REDACTED] noting that there is a [REDACTED] who is a known segregationist in Little Rock and there is considerable confusion among the people between these two individuals. Since this publication has been disseminated and reported in the press as having been so distributed at the scene at Little Rock Central High School, it would appear that a direct inquiry could be made without embarrassment to the bureau at the publishing house in New Jersey in order to identify and obtain the specific address of the [REDACTED] who was the recipient of one package of the publication "COMMON SENSE". Newark should also attempt to ascertain the identity and address of any other individuals in Little Rock who received any sizeable shipment of this publication, including [REDACTED] who received a package at the same time as [REDACTED]. Newark is requested to make this check promptly unless advised to the contrary by New York office, who furnished the original information from a confidential source. It is believed this information can now be obtained without revealing the identity of the source.

44-253-3 New York teletype to Newark, dated 9-27-57 and captioned "Integration in Public Schools in Arkansas, CR, Contempt of Court, re Little Rock tel 9-26-57." It is reflected that [REDACTED] who has furnished reliable information in the past recontacted 9-27-57, and advised 44-253-3 Cont'd. SA [] that this source received info mentioned in NY tel 9-12-57 from an investigator working for [] termed reliable but whose identity this source does not desire to disclose. [] believes that any mention of the names to CONDE MCGINLEY, publisher of "COMMON SENSE" unless the latter first makes mention of these names would probably indicate to MCGINLEY the source of this info since MC GINLEY was very secretive about sending the packages to these two individuals in Little Rock. Source says any general inquiry of MCGINLEY re identities of persons in or about Little Rock to whom MCGINLEY may have recently sent bundles of the August 1, 1957, issue of "COMMON SENSE" would in no way disclose source of this info since it could be pointed out to MCGINLEY that numerous copies of this issue have recently been distributed to people at the scene at Little Rock High School. Newark should, accordingly, conduct interview of MCGINLEY along these lines. If MCGINLEY then mentions [] as recipients in Little Rock of this issue, questions can then be asked of MC GINLEY to further identify same. Newark telephonically advised.

44-253-12 Newark report of SA [] dated 10-6-57 and captioned "Integration in Public Schools in Arkansas" Civil Rights; Contempt of Court. It is reflected that information was received by the Newark Office on September 26, 1957, from the New York Office of the FBI to the effect that copies of the August 1, 1957, issue of the weekly newspaper "COMMON SENSE" published at 530 Chestnut Street, Union, New Jersey, had been disseminated in the vicinity of Little Rock Central High School, Little Rock, Arkansas. New York advised further that CONDE MC GINLEY, Editor of "COMMON SENSE," on September 11, 1957, mailed 2,000 copies of the August 1, 1957, issue of his paper to an unknown addressee in the Little Rock, Arkansas, area and that he had planned to send 2,000 copies more. It is to be noted that under date of December 17, 1954, the Committee on Un-American Activities of the U. S. House of Representatives published a preliminary report on "Neo-Fascist" and "hate groups," in which report "COMMON SENSE" is described as a hate group vehicle publishing "...some of the most vitriolic hate propaganda ever to come to the attention of the Committee." According to the report, "Common Sense" devotes many of its pages to attacks on the Negro minorities in our nation. CONDE MCGINLEY, Editor of "COMMON SENSE," was interviewed at his office, 530 Chestnut Street, Union, New Jersey. He stated that his paper has

44-253-12 Cont'd. fewer than 50 regular subscribers in the State of Arkansas and that prior to the Little Rock integration problem only 5 of these subscribers were located in the Little Rock area. MCGINLEY stated that according to his personal recollection he received a few requests for extra copies of the August 1, 1957, issue of his paper from the Little Rock area shortly after the issue was published but that none of these requests was for a large quantity of extra copies. He stated that all of these requests were received prior to the outbreak of the integration problem in Little Rock and that according to his recollection no requests for extra copies has been received from that area since the integration problem in Little Rock first came to national attention. MCGINLEY advised that his statements as to the number of copies sent to Little Rock of necessity were based on his personal recollection, inasmuch as he purposely does not maintain any records regarding such requests for extra copies of any particular issue of his paper. MCGINLEY stated that if issues of his paper have been distributed in the Little Rock area in sizeable quantity, these issues must have their immediate source elsewhere than his publishing house in Union, New Jersey. He stated that in his personal opinion the issues found in Little Rock very possibly may have been brought in from one of the neighboring states to which he recalls having sent, on special request, sizeable quantities of the August 1, 1957, issue of his paper. He recalled specifically that he sent 12 separate bundles of 4,000 copies each to 12 separate subscribers in the State of Alabama shortly after the release of the August 1, 1957, issue. MCGINLEY declined to identify the Alabama subscribers or any other subscribers to whom he had sent sizeable quantities of the August 1, 1957, issue. He likewise declined to identify the individuals in Little Rock, Arkansas, who subscribed to his paper.

44-253-7 New York teletype dated 10-1-57 and captioned "Integration in Public Schools, State of Arkansas, CR, Contempt of Court." Re Little Rock tel to Bureau. 9-26-57, and Newark Tel, 9-27-57. It is reflected that [redacted] advised b2 b7D this date that CONDE MCGINLEY, Union, N. J. had been visited by two FBI agents on 9-27-57, and he appeared very upset after they had left. He attempted to make a long distance telephone call for several hours after agents left, apparently in connection with their visit. Approximately 8 P.M. on 9-27-57, he completed the call which was made from a public pay telephone across street from his residence in Union, N. J. He made call from telephone Murdock 8-5692. Informant understood the charges were five dollars and thirty-five cents. Newark requested to ascertain to whom call was made.

The letter stated that nothing was being done by the police and that there might be a "Civil Rights Violation." 100-40779-1B1-6 Photostatic copy of a 31 page pamphlet identified as having been printed by the New Jersey Associates of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee and containing on the cover a quote from the Detroit Free Press 10-27-47, received from [redacted]

[redacted], on 3-30-56. Under the heading "Before the Event" and the sub-heading "We Welcome the Committee!" the following is reflected: The advance build-up accorded the Committee by its local supporters began again with redoubled vigor. The customary civic, fraternal and veterans' groups fell over each other in welcoming the House probers to Newark. The Essex County Veterans of Foreign Wars, the American Legion and the Catholic War Veterans commanders were among the first to do so. The Daughters of the American Revolution and the Sons of the American Revolution roused themselves, suggesting indeed that a military band be on hand at the Pennsylvania Railroad Station to welcome the Committee. There were other voices--familiar voices--joining the chorus of welcome. They included the Anti-Communist League of New Jersey, Vigilant Women for the Bricker Amendment, and the publication COMMON SENSE. Such backing for both the Committee and its supporters apparently proved no embarrassment whatsoever, despite the notorious, public records of bigotry of these groups. Nor did the Committee disclaim support from such racists as [redacted]

New Jersey, who once boasted of his financial contributions to the British Fascist, [redacted] of For America and the D.A.R. who touched off a storm of protest throughout New Jersey because of her anti-Semitism in 1954 when she berated the use of Kosher labels on 'American' products; and the incredibly vile racist, CONDE MC GINLEY of Union, New Jersey, who has just lost a libel and slander suit to one of the state's most eminent rabbis [redacted] of Temple B'nai Abraham of Newark. There was no blinking the fact. The advance build-up for the Committee on Un-American Activities smacked of the hey-day of Senator MC CARTHY. "We cordially welcome the Committee!" summed up the Star-Ledger.

Jews and Negroes being confiscated and distributed among secret members. The organization was loosely referred to as "The emphasized strict discipline of all members. The organization described itself as one revolutionary in nature in that it would,

The group's unidentified leader is described as King or Leader, with Jewish people referred to as "The Conspiracy" and members of instant group referred to as "Patriots." Some of the literature even urged members to obtain arms and ammunition for possible use against Jews. The Christian Holy Bible is profusely utilized in writings of "The Patriot" in documenting its evidence of alleged invisible Jewish conspiracy, the leader being frequently referred to as "Pharisiac Masters." Annual dues, according to the literature, are $10, $4 of which goes to District Headquarters, with $5 to National Headquarters, and the remaining $1.00 is for subscription to the paper "Common Sense," published by the Christian Education Association, CONDE MCGINLEY, Editor, Box 807, Union, N.
